

 NOTICE *****

When entering the Marc H. Westbrook Judicial Center you will be subject to and pass through a screening station. This station is staffed by Lexington County Sheriff's Deputies. You can expect the deputies to check the contents of your briefcase and/or very small handbag (no larger than 6" x 9") by passing them through an X-ray machine and or removing the contents. You can also expect to be required to walk through some form of metal detection equipment. Any prohibited items will be identified in this screening process. If you have any of these items in your possession when entering the facility, you may be refused admittance until you remove the items and return them to your vehicle, as this facility does not have storage space available to keep your personal items. Once you have cleared the screening station, you will be permitted to proceed to your destination.

PROHIBITED ITEMS INCLUDE:

Weapons of any kind
Food and drink, except water provided at Counsel tables
Cell phones & Smart phones
(exceptions: Employees, Attorneys, Police & Other pre-approved Gov't Agencies)
Audible pagers
Cameras
Recording devises
Handbags larger than (6"- 9")
Backpacks
Stroller/Carrier

 If you have specific medical needs, please advise deputies at screening and we will do our best to accommodate those needs!!
