Red Bank Collection Site Survey (Goal 2) - Solid Waste Management - Joe Mergo, Director –

Mr. Mergo continued discussion of the Red Bank Collection site options to relocate to County owned property or within the area. He presented research on property values between the Platt Springs and Two Notch Road areas: nine acres adjacent from the current site valued at $577,000, approximately $64,000 an acre; 30 acres near Two Notch Road and the I-20 corridor valued at $142,000 an acre; 2.8 acres at the corner of Nazareth Road and South Lake Drive sold for $315,000; one acre at Platt Springs Road and South Lake Drive sold for $650,000. Mr. Mergo to investigate potential Red Bank areas within a 2.5-mile radius of the Collection site by next meeting or move on to other options. Garbage collection stations and pick-up services were discussed. The complaints continue to come in about the garbage collection services. Mr. Mergo to research the idea of a County-run garbage collection service to begin with a pilot program in the Chapin area. Information only. No action taken.

Solid Waste Management FY 2007/2008 Budget (Goal #3) - Solid Waste Management - Joe Mergo, Director - Topic was not brought up for discussion.
