The South Carolina Emergency Management Division has awarded the CMCOG a grant for $85,000 to cover 75% of the cost of the plan update. CMCOG is asking the four participating counties (Lexington, Richland, Newberry, and Fairfield) and the City of Columbia to provide approximately $4,200 or 1/5 of the required matching amount. The Committee asked Mr. Whitaker if CMCOG has this money in their budget, which he indicated it was in the CMCOG’s current budget. He said the CMCOG was committed to do the project whether they receive the local matches. CMCOG is requesting assistance due to state budget cuts. Mr. Bryd is also a member of the South Carolina Education Broadband Service Commission. Mr. Ujcich reported the committee has been researching a number of different types of technologies primarily around wireless delivery of data throughout the County by mobile users. He said there has been some events as it relates to technology and activity at the State level that provides an opportunity to bring this technology forth. Currently the County uses aircards, phones and hotspots located throughout the County for local wireless connection that is limited in range. The subcommittee has been looking at the WiMAX technology that can deliver more efficient bandwidth use and allow higher data rates over longer distances. The Subcommittee is seeking permission to move forward with research on the WiMAX technology and pursue grant funding that may be available through the Stimulus Bill. The South Carolina Association of Counties is forming a communications committee with representatives from Lexington, Richland, Orangeburg, Greenville, and Charleston counties. Mr. Ujcich said the County needs to advise the State of their interest in the excess broadband capacity in order to reserve any licenses needed. The County Administrator will keep the Committee updated on any action needed. For information only, no action taken.

EMS Funding Request (Goal 1) - Public Safety/EMS - Brian Hood, Coordinator - Chief Hood presented an update on the EMS request for new positions for the EMS’s night shift. He reported that after researching the revenue sources and the projected five percent call volume increase EMS would have sufficient funds for additional staffing needs. Chief Hood also presented a proposed rate increase for EMS transport services. Currently the EMS base fee for County residents is $496 and non-County residents is $551. (Mileage is $9 per loaded mile and no-transport charge is $110.) Staff has proposed new rates for the EMS base fee of $500 for County residents and $600 for non-County residents. (No changes to mileage and no-transport charges.) The projected revenue is estimated to be $863,000 and would cover the cost of the $287,000 requested for the additional night shift staff. The Committee requested that in the future when staff presents a request before Council they be better prepared without requiring multiple meetings. The Committee discussed the proposed rate increase, collections and Medicare reimbursements for transport.
