Overview of the Operations of the Columbia Metropolitan Convention Center - Ric Luber, President & CEO - Midlands Authority for Conventions, Sports & Tourism - Mr. Luber presented an overview of the Columbia Metropolitan Convention Center operations and its impact on the community. The Committee asked if funds were “comingled” between the Convention Center, sports operations, or visitors’ center. Mr. Luber replied there was no commingling of funds between the three separate entities and each has their own separate financial accounts maintained by the Convention Center with the local banks. Mr. Luber also responded a black and white income statement is provided monthly. Mr. Jeff Anderson, County Attorney, asked about the reserve amount of about $5 million. Mr. Luber said the balance is approximately $8.5 million and out of that there are dedicated funds that have to be withheld in reserve. By mid August, after the books are closed, they should be able to determine the exact surplus amount. If there are surplus funds available, as defined in the agreement, it will be prorata shared back with the two counties and the city (sometime in mid August). The Committee commented on the wonderful job and representation by the Convention Center and its staff. For information only, no action taken.
