Lexington County Community Development
2027 Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program
NOTICE OF FUNDING AVAILABILITY (NOFA)
REQUEST FOR APPLICATIONS (RFA)

Notice Date: November 11, 2026

Lexington County announces the opportunity to apply for funding through 2027 Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program, covering July 1, 2027 through June 30, 2028. The CDBG Program, funded by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), supports projects that benefit low- and moderate-income residents and address community development needs.

Lexington County invites eligible organizations and public entities to submit applications for consideration under its competitive CDBG funding process. Applicants may apply for funding for qualifying activities such as public infrastructure, neighborhood revitalization, public facilities, housing rehabilitation, and public services. Proposed projects must meet HUD eligibility requirements, address a CDBG national objective, and align with the County's Consolidated Plan and funding priorities.

Mandatory CDBG Application Workshop
Lexington County will conduct an application workshop to assist prospective applicants in understanding CDBG eligibility requirements, eligible activities, funding priorities, application procedures, and the project review process.

Attendance is required for all prospective applicants.
Date: Wednesday, December 2, 2026
Time: 9:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.
Location: Town of Lexington Municipal Complex | The Eli Mack Room
111 Maiden Lane, Lexington, SC 29072

The workshop will cover eligibility requirements, eligible activities, funding priorities, application procedures, and the review process.

Funding Availability
Funding is subject to HUD allocations, federal appropriations, available resources, and County approval. Submission of an application does not guarantee funding.
